HIDES IDENTITY — Appearing in Cleveland, Ohio, before the House subcommittee on Communist aggression, Mister "Z" conceals his identity in order to protect his wife, daughter and grandchildren still in Communist hands. Mister "Z" told the committee that one of his daughters, now dead, was criminally assaulted 27 times in 1945 by Russian soldiers in Hungary.

8 More To Tell Of Red Crimes

House Probers Hear Hungarians In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight more witnesses came before a House subcommittee on Communist aggression today to add their stories to testimony that rape, beatings and book-burnings attended the Reds' postwar seizure of control in Hungary.

In an ornate federal courtroom, Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.), subcommittee chairman, and Rep. Michael A. Feighan, Cleveland Democrat, listened yesterday while seven persons recalled painful memories of atrocities, persecution and deception.

The Soviets had planned the post-war government of Hungary when before that nation surrendered in World War II, Dr. Geza Teleki told the subcommittee yesterday. He spoke of his fight as minister of education to keep the Russians from dominating Hungary's schools.

The 43-year-old Teleki, now a professor of political geography at the University of Virginia, said he was one of three patriots who sneaked through Gestapo lines to petition to Allied forces in Moscow for surrender. Once there, he said, the three had no choice but to sign an agreement offered them by Foreign Minister Molotov.

Even before the Russians took over they began "loading the universities" with Communists and fellow travelers, Teleki said. He told of a plot to "infect the tools of doctors" so patients died from infection and the ensuing Red-inspired public indignation "destroyed some of the finest doctors at the University of Budapest."

"MR. Z," a Cleveland resident, testified his daughter and a family maid were criminally assaulted by Red soldiers "many times." His daughter lost her reason as a result and committed suicide.

Wearing a hood to protect his identity, he answered questions through an interpreter. Mrs. John Straban.

With eight witnesses scheduled to appear today, the hearings should end late in the afternoon.

French Assembly Asks Parliament Veto EDC Pact

Top Consultative Body Votes 100-65 Against European Army Plan

PARIS (AP) — The Assembly of the French Union, top consultative body for France and her overseas territories, recommended today that Parliament reject the European Defense Community Treaty. The 100-65 vote against the six-nation army plan came after an all-night session.

The Union Assembly's recommendations have no legal weight. But the vote was another indication of the rough road EDC faces when it comes up for the crucial ratification debate in Parliament's lower house, the National Assembly, tomorrow.

Government May Fall

The two-month-old government of Premier Pierre Mendes-France threatens to disintegrate over the explosive European army issue.

Powerful political forces kept up steady pressure on the half-dozen Cabinet ministers supporting EDC to resign at once.

These factions were angered by Mendes-France's failure to work actively to put the EDC treaty across in the Assembly. A series of secret huddles was held last night, but no final decisions were taken. More buzzing back and forth was certain today.

The threat to the government brought President Rene Coty hurrying back to Paris from his Normandy vacation to preside over a full-dress meeting today of the Cabinet. Cabinet meetings take on additional weight and meaning in France when the President sits in.

To Resume Holiday

The President's office said he would resume his holiday at Bagnoles de l'Orne right after the meeting. Officials declined to comment on Coty's return to the capital except to say that Mendes-France asked him to make the trip.

Three anti-EDC ministers, all followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, resigned two weeks ago after Mendes-France drew up his revised version of EDC which the five other European army nations later turned down at their Brussels conference.

The ultranationalist De Gaulles resented their Premier having anything to do with EDC in any version.

The pro-EDC ministers involved in the latest resignation maneuver include Maurice Bourges-Maunoury, industry and commerce; Emile Hughes, justice; Guy La Chambre, associated states (Indochina); and Guerin de Beaumont, secretary of state for foreign affairs. All are members of the radical right.

China Reds Raid Small Nationalist-Held Island

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China today announced a small-scale hit-and-run raid on Quemoy, a Nationalist-held offshore island. There was no indication that it was a prelude to the Reds' loudly heralded threat of invasion of Formosa.

A Peiping radio broadcast said 40 Communist soldiers made two separate landings on Quemoy Monday night, killing 11 Nationalist soldiers before pulling back to the mainland 15 miles away.

Nationalist sources in Taipei said the raid was one of several staged by the Reds in recent weeks to capture prisoners. They said one Nationalist soldier was captured and the Reds lost one man taken prisoner.

Raid Labeled Skirmish

U.S. officials in Washington labeled the raid no more than a skirmish and pointed out that even the conquest of Quemoy would leave the Reds far from their goal of "liberating" Formosa.

The Nationalist stronghold lies 100 miles across the Formosa Strait, guarded by the U.S. 7th Fleet and an American-equipped army.

For several weeks Peiping has been broadcasting almost daily threats to "liberate" Formosa and wipe out the Nationalist regime of Chiang Kai-shek.

In advance of any invasion, the Reds would be expected to seize a chain of Nationalist-held offshore islands running from Quemoy north to the Tachens, some 200 miles northwest of Formosa.

However, U.S. military experts have discounted the possibility of a Red attack on Formosa and have pointed out that there has been no large-scale Red troop buildup along the coast opposite the Nationalist island.

U.S. sources in Tokyo said today they regarded the Quemoy attack and recent threats to invade Formosa as a propaganda campaign aimed at the forthcoming Manila conference to map a Southeast Asia security agreement.

These sources said the Reds are trying to show conference participants that the United States will go to war over Formosa and the signers of any defense pact would be giving up any initiative in the matter.

Summitcrest Farms' Cattle Steal Beef Show At Fair

LISBON — Whether they slept beside their pet cow or in a drafty mow at the county fairground, Columbus County boys and girls rubbed the sleep out of their eyes early this morning to get ready for Junior Fair Day at the 109th farm exposition.

The youth, representing 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America and granges, have packed much of the space at the grounds with their diversified products, ranging from livestock to cooking and sewing.

Miss Jean Stille, home demonstration agent, said the 4-H booth exhibit consists of work from 84 clubs.

Johnston's Cattle Win

Beef and dairy cattle judging kept the new pavilion buzzing with activity Thursday as blue ribbons were pinned on handsome animals from a eight-county area. Three head of Aberdeen — Angus cattle from Summitcrest farms at Kensington, exhibiting for the first time, stole the show in the beef division, sweeping the grand champion bull and grand champion and reserve champion female classes. Fred Johnson of Summitville is their owner.

Frank Mills of Pattersonville had the reserve champion Angus bull. In the Hereford or white-face beef class, G. A. Porterfield of St. Clairsville owned the grand champion and reserve champion bulls. Hively, had the champion female, while Wilbur Coy of Salem RD showed the grand champion female.

A New Waterford shorthorn bull raised by Kenneth Streng took top honors in his breed and another New Waterford breeder, Curtis Hively, had the champion female.

Reserve champion shorthorn bull and reserve champion female were owned by R. J. Henderson of Adent. R. B. Knight of Cortland judged the beef.

The large open-class Dairy Cattle entry was rated by Charles F. Monroe of Wooster.

In the Guernsey breed, John Hawkins and Son of New Waterford had a clean sweep, winning

Complications Hit Berg Issue

Levy Or Firm's Plant Seen As Solutions

LEETONIA — Either a village levy to raise money for an addition to the sewage disposal plant, or a pre-treatment plant built by Berg's Bretzel Inc., will be necessary to keep the potato-chip industry in Leetonia, City Solicitor William C. Lodge said today.

Village officials had been of the opinion Berg's plan of building a lagoon adjacent to Leetonia's sewage treatment plant and piping the treated waste to the lagoon could be a permanent set-up and were working on that basis, Lodge stated.

However, in a telephone conversation Thursday with Bruce McDill, engineer for the State Pollution Board at Columbus, the city solicitor received confirmation of Water Superintendent Ralph Waggoner's report the lagoon could not be a permanent addition to the village disposal unit.

Lodge was informed if the lagoon were built by Berg's, and used on a trial basis, it would prove that Leetonia could handle the sludge. After this proof, the state could make the village discontinue use of the lagoon and demand building additions to the present disposal plant. Mr. Lodge said financial conditions of the village would not permit this addition unless funds were raised for that purpose.

Mail Order Firm Control Sought

Floridian Buys Stock In Montgomery Ward

NEW YORK (AP) — The forces of Florida industrialist Louis E. Wolfson squared away today for a pitched financial battle to oust the conservative management of Sewell L. Avery from giant Montgomery Ward & Co.

"We believe we now hold the largest block of shares in the company," the 42-year-old Wolfson told a news conference here yesterday. "Our continuing investment in Montgomery Ward stock, candidly, has been with the intention to strengthen our position in the company with a view to superseding the present management."

Avery, the 80-year-old chairman of the board of the 70-million-dollar mail order and retail empire, declined immediate comment in Chicago.

Wolfson's interest in Montgomery Ward became known publicly only a week ago. Until the news conference he had refused to state why he and his associates had accumulated large holdings of stock.

Wolfson, a slim, tanned man with black, curly hair, said: "I don't want to disclose the type attack we will use. We haven't crystallized any definite plans on how to approach the situation except to do everything necessary to go into a proxy fight, we will go into a proxy fight. It will be dignified."

Youngstowners Fight Putting Base In Vienna

Arsenal Grounds To Be Considered For Site Of Both Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force officials laid plans today to send an inspection team to Ohio to size up the Ravenna Arsenal grounds as a possible site for two reserve air bases.

Originally military plans called for these separate facilities to train northern Ohio fliers:

1. A jet fighter bomber squadron of 26 planes at Youngstown Municipal Airport at Vienna, Ohio, with a completion date of early 1956.

2. A troop carrier facility somewhere between Akron and Cleveland, the land to be purchased this year or next.

Protest Military Planes

But a delegation from Youngstown, headed by Mayor Francis X. Kryzan, vehemently protested any additional military planes at their airport in a Pentagon meeting yesterday.

After about two hours, Maj. Gen. William E. Hall finally agreed to consider the 20,000-acre Ravenna grounds for both facilities.

Just when the survey team will go to Ravenna is uncertain.

Air Force Undersecretary Bradley Nash told a reporter he thought the team could go "within 24 hours."

However, Rep. Oliver P. Bolton (R-Ohio), who sponsored the arsenal grounds proposal, said he hoped the team would go next Tuesday or shortly after that.

Bolton wants to accompany the officers in the hope of convincing them the site would be the most convenient place in northern Ohio.

By that, Bolton told Hall at yesterday's meeting, he means that in terms of driving time reservists from Cleveland, Akron and Youngstown, all could get there in an hour or less.

The reason for this, he said, is that Ohio is building or planning to build new high-speed turnpikes.

Should the military reject Ravenna as a site, Nash said there still is a possibility Youngstown might not get the new squadron.

This could happen, he said, if some other site between Cleveland and Akron were found for the troop carrier facility and it were found possible to put the squadron there as well.

But he said this site would have to be picked quickly.

One big objection Hall and Nash had to building a separate facility, instead of locating at Youngstown, was the cost.

Hall said it would cost only $1,950,000 to expand existing equipment at the Youngstown airport, but 15 million dollars to build a separate airport.

CD Group To Parade At Fair

Mobile Unit Convoy To Cross District

About 250 district civil defense workers of the 31st Mobile Support Group will participate in the Ohio State Fair Civil Defense Parade in Columbus Sunday afternoon.

A civil defense caravan will cross the district gathering the members for the trip to Columbus.

Leetonia and West Point members will join the First Platoon at Lisbon Civil Defense Headquarters at 8:30 a.m. Sunday. The Niles unit will arrive in Lisbon at the same time for assembly.

The convoy will leave Lisbon at 9:15. The Hanoverton Second Platoon will join the convoy at Loudon Garage on Route 30 at 10:20 a.m. The Minerva and Malvern units will join with the Carrollton Platoon and that group will move into the convoy at about 11 a.m.

In addition to the personnel of the group, the district's two rescue trucks, a water carrier, a water pumper, and a fire training truck also will participate.

Communications equipment and personnel will be interspersed throughout the convoy so that actual training under simulated emergency conditions may be perfected.

Mobile Support Group police will provide guards for the vehicles and maintain control of the convoy during its movement.

The support group, under the command of Leo F. McCarthy of Youngstown, serves 16 counties including Columbiana.

McCarthy and Col. Lynn, the Area Civil Defense director, hope the 31st M.S.G. appearance in the parade "will so impress the Columbus officials and the people of Ohio that additional benefits in equipment and training may be made available" to the district.

3 'Pachuco' Airmen Found At Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Questioning of three airmen about activities of a secret terror society—"Pachuco"—continued at nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base today.

Air Force officials said the three were uncooperative yesterday as members of the society dedicated to violence. Names of the three, all in the stockade on charges of being AWOL, were not released.

Discovery of the trio came after Brig. Gen. Hewitt T. Wheeler ordered screening of stockade prisoners and "known troublemakers."

The inquiry here followed the first big expose of "Pachuco" among airmen at Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois. A roundup there disclosed over 100 members, investigators said.

Members of the society often are identified by a tattoo of a cross mounted by a halo, sometimes etched into the palm of the hand.

Gen. Wheeler said there has been no trouble at the base. He termed the investigation and search a precautionary measure.

Rev. Stanley Named Friends Missionary Superintendent

When Rev. Chester G. Stanley of Columbus comes to Damascus Sept. 1 to begin his duties as missionary superintendent of Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends, he will be returning to the area of his boyhood. The Stanleys will reside in the west side apartment of the Friends' Missionary Home.

Rev. Stanley was named to this post at the Thursday morning session of the Yearly Meeting at Damascus. He succeeds Dr. Walter R. Williams of Damascus, who has been serving as both missionary and general superintendent. Dr. Williams was retained as general superintendent, which position he has held for several years.

Pastor of the Columbus Highland Avenue Friends Church for several years, Rev. Stanley graduated from Damascus High School and Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., and did post graduate work in the New

State St. Project Work Progressing

Another block of State St. was torn up by noon today as crews of the Leslie Hoopes Construction Co. proceeded with the removal of the old pavement.

After two days of struggling with the thick pavement, Hoopes brought in a plow-like roofer which has torn its way from Lincoln to Broadway.

At the same time, other crews, with a concrete cutter, have cut two feet off the sidewalk along the street for widening.

City electrical crews have completed the erection of the 33 tapered steel poles which will hold the new "White Way" lighting downtown Broadway and State St. and are expected to have the globes in place by this afternoon. Wiring will follow, and it is expected that the new system, replacing 54 lights now in use, will be placed in operation Monday. The old poles will then be removed.

County Reitors Meet

COLUMBIANA — Thirty-seven area real estate men, including five from Salem, golfed and feasted on steak at the annual fry of the Columbiana County Real Estate Association Wednesday night at Valley Golf Course.

Special guest was E.E. Kauffman, of Akron, vice president of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

Youth Is Sought In Rape Attempt

Young Mother, Child Attacked In Home

GALION, Ohio (P)—Known sex offenders in this area were being checked today as officers tried to trace a curly-haired, blond youth who yesterday stabbed and beat a young mother and her 5-year-old daughter in a rape attempt.

Sheriff E. F. Jacobs said a neighborhood posse was withdrawn after failing to find the youth last night.

The victims were Mrs. Wilbur W. Knipp, 25, and her daughter, Linda. Both were stabbed in the chest and back and struck on the heads with a pistol butt when Mrs. Knipp tried to rout the intruder with a butcher knife.

Youth 18 or 19

The sheriff said Mrs. Knipp described the youth as good-looking and about 18 or 19 years old.

She gave this account of the attack:

The youth came to her kitchen door about noon yesterday, forced his way in and ordered Mrs. Knipp to undress. He carried a gun and warned both mother and daughter not to cry out.

Grabbed Child

When Linda started to whimper, the youth grabbed the child and started to throttle her. Mrs. Knipp grabbed a butcher knife and slashed at the intruder. He seized a paring knife and attacked the mother and child with it and with his gun butt, then fled.

Another daughter, 7-month-old Sharon, was unmolested as she slept in a crib nearby.

Mrs. Knipp ran screaming into the yard and a neighbor hailed a passing sheriff's deputy.

She said she had stabbed the intruder and police traced his path by blood spots leading about 10 feet from the back porch.

Neighbors armed with shotguns searched the area yesterday and last night but found no trace of the youth.

Salem Bowling Center Newly Redecorated

Jim Fitzpatrick, new manager of the Salem Bowling Center, which has been in operation for the past 10 years, will have an opening of the newly redecorated center Saturday at 1 p.m. at the E. Pershing St. and Lundy Ave. location.

Don Krauss, who has been associated with the alleys for the past 10 years, will continue in the same capacity.

One hundred thirty-six teams comprise the 11 leagues using the 14 alley center. The area is 100 by 150 feet.

Some of the improvements include complete redecoration with bright valances over the alleys, modernized lighting, reconditioning of the alleys and painting.

New equipment purchased are a ball cleaner and polisher, and a violet-ray shoe sterilizing machine.

Convenience bowlers will notice are improvements in lounge and rest rooms, and large storage lockers. A lounge room has been fitted for the use of pin boys when off duty.

Lunches and refreshments will be available, as well as free parking in the lot next door for users of the alley. Spectators are welcome to watch bowlers, Mr. Fitzpatrick said.

Free instructions will be given men, women, and youth of high school age Monday through Friday from 1 to 3 p.m., the manager stated.

Special attractions in the center during the past have been exhibitions by Joe Willman of Chicago; and Dick Hoover and his G.I. Machine Team of Akron. Both are past national classic winners.

East Goshen

Mrs. Estelle Park and Mrs. Inez Madison of Chicago are visiting Mrs. Mary Malmesbury and Mrs. Mary Myers. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Petre, Bonnie and Sandra of Alliance, called at the Malmesbury home Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Shreve of Brockport, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Rakestraw and Neva of Lupton, Mich., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Shreve.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers left Tuesday for a trip through Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bayless of Damascus, Mrs. Elizabeth Zurburg of Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zurburg of Beloit, Mo., and Mrs. Chalmers Sheares of Robertsville and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Graber of Hartsville were in the company from this area.

MAN, WOMAN DROWN

CHARDON, Ohio (P)—A boat upset last night on Punderson Lake and a man and a woman drowned. Both bodies were recovered. Papers found on the man's body identified him as Ernest Van Volsem, 47, of Mayfield Heights near Cleveland. The woman was believed to be his wife, Clothilda.

Civil Defense To Begin Sept. 5

Photos, Fingerprints Of 111 Workers Taken

COLUMBIANA — Anthony Sebastian, assistant civil defense director of Mahoning County, who was failed to get to city hall Wednesday evening will have to make a trip to Youngstown to qualify for defense work, as photographs and fingerprints are required within a month after defense workers have assumed their duties.

Mrs. Lloyd Wonseller, in charge of recruiting ground observers and first aid workers, plans now for the ground observer vigil to begin Sunday, Sept. 5. Weather has delayed completion of the observation tower in Firestone Park. An 18-hour schedule will start the work of the ground observers, and the round-the-clock vigil will follow in a short time.

ABOUT 80 parents and Cubs were present at the August meeting and picnic of Cub Pack 17, Boy Scouts of the Presbyterian Church at Firestone Park Wednesday evening. Tommy Wining and Richard Kyser were graduated into scouting, and five new members, Jimmy Ward, Kenny Hogue, Tommy Mayernick, Fred Gosney and Jim Browning were received into the pack.

There will be a meeting of the new den mothers and the planning committee in the Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. next Wednesday. New den mothers are: Mrs. Russell Lindsay, Den 1; Mrs. Donald Smith, Den 2; Mrs. Fred Detwiler, Den 3; Mrs. Wilbur Garrod, Den 5. Den 4 was discontinued temporarily earlier this year.

An expression of appreciation was given retiring den mothers, Mrs. Irvin Brittain, Mrs. Marion Barger, Mrs. Clyde Richardson, Jr. and Mrs. Eugene Hanna.

AWARDS were made Wednesday evening to: Bud Schmidt, wolf badge and gold arrow point; Wining, two silver arrow points, denner stripe, webelos badge and graduation into scouting; Kyser, two-year service star and graduation into scouting.

Jerry Wining, two silver arrow points; Robert Barger, lion badge, two-year service stripe and denner stripe; David Hanna, denner stripe and three-year service star; Jesse Lindsay, wolf badge;

Jimmy Longworth, one-year service star, one gold and four silver arrow points, bear book and birthday; Dick Sieb, one gold and four silver arrow points; Timmy Smith, three service points and bear book;

Ted Detwiler, one-year service star and one gold and four silver arrow points; John Brittain, one gold and one silver arrow point, denner stripe and lion badge; Clyde Richardson, one gold and three silver arrow points.

TEACHERS of Fairfield Centralized School are to meet at the school at 9:30 a.m. Monday, preparatory to the opening of the school year next Wednesday, Sept. 1.

Today was the last day for new students to register at the school office, registration having been open from 9 a.m. until noon since Monday. Pupils will number some 540 this year compared with 480 last year.

On the opening day of school, there will be a forenoon session only. Busses will make their rounds at the regular time that morning and will return school pupils to their homes at noon. The school has added another bus making a fleet of eight and has hired Glen Grim as driver. Bus schedules will be distributed to homes of the district prior to school opening.

The teaching staff of Fairfield School will have three new members this year. Mrs. Emerson Snyder of Fairfield township will teach in the elementary grades.

Miss Ida Citina of Salem will teach girls' physical education, replacing Miss Barbara Ross, who has resumed her college work at Kent State toward a degree. Duane Guiler of N. Lincoln Ave., Salem, will be the instructor in driver education.

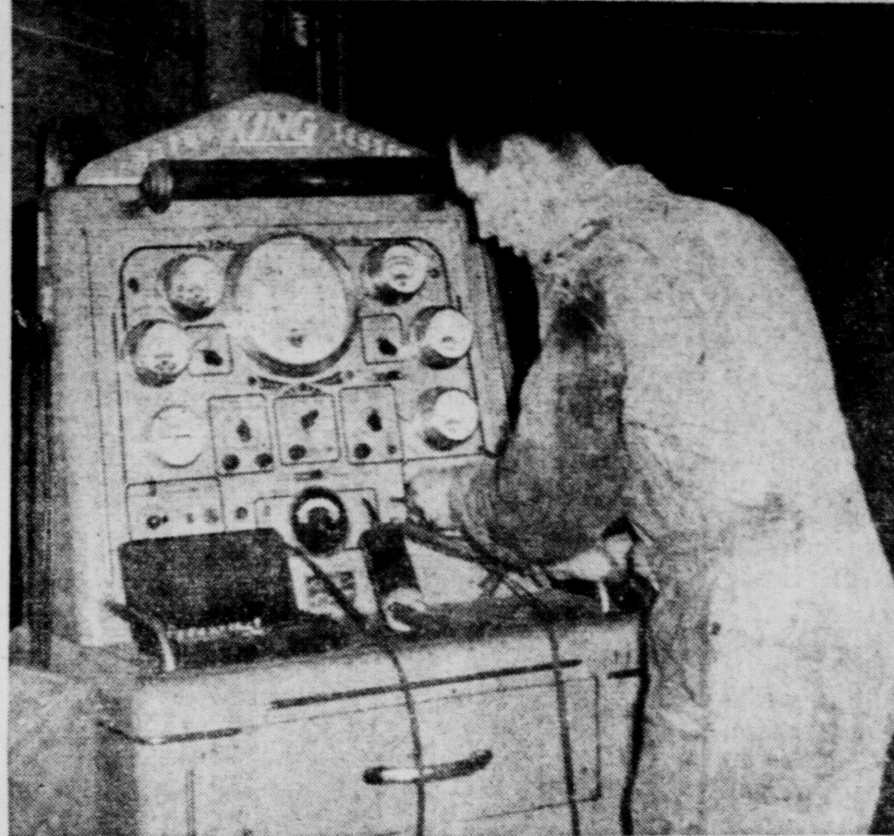

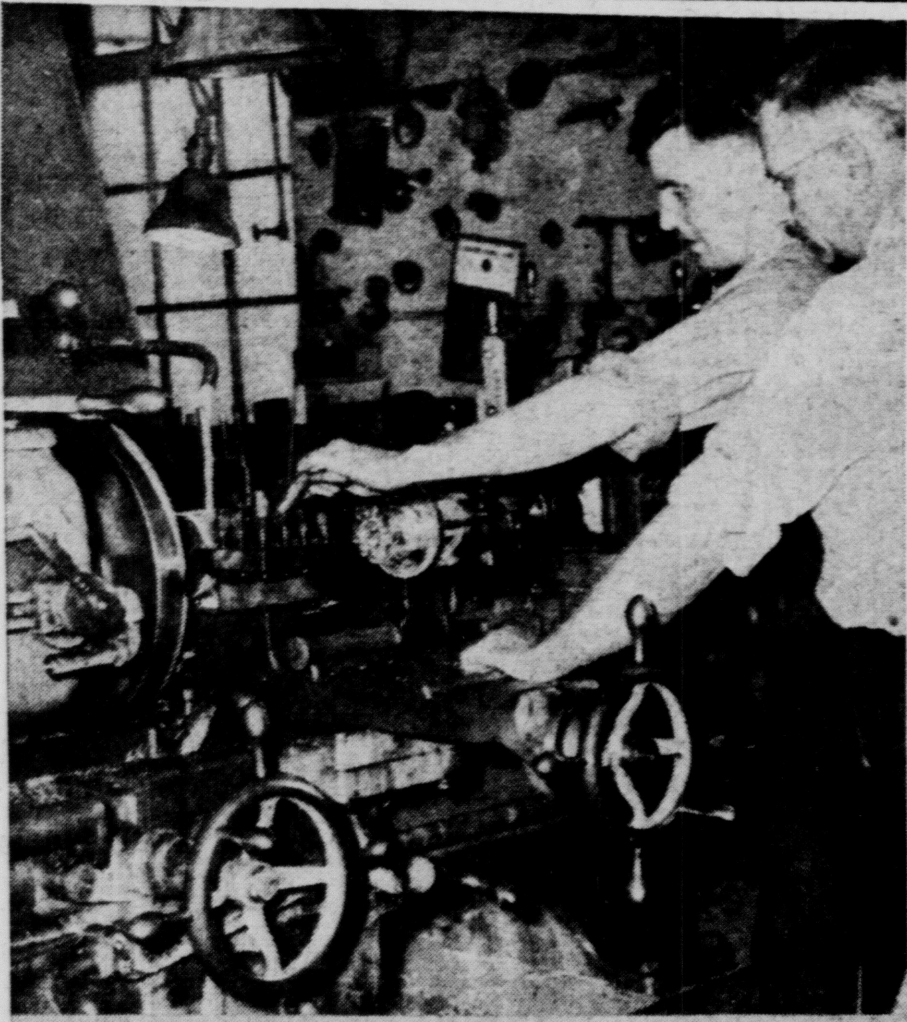

Bids for the preparation of a parking lot driveway extension and playground drain at the site of the new elementary school building on N. Middle St. will be received at the office of Superintendent D. W. Bailey in the High School building until noon next Monday, when they will be opened by the board of education of Columbiana village exempted school district.

NEW GARDEN Keith August of Salem is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred August.

Mr. and Mrs. William Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Humphrey and Billie spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Heim in Medina.

Several from here attended the Mullins CIO picnic Saturday at the Saxon's picnic ground.

Mrs. Pearl Brown entertained 14 women at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Altenhoff.

1954 TRADES CLASSES UNDERWAY—About 140 have registered for Salem Trades Extension classes in machine trades and drafting, Holland Cameron, class coordinator, said today. Registration in industrial electricity, electronics, radio and television are continuing this week. By the time all classes including the commercial courses are underway, Cameron expects about 300 to be enrolled. The courses are free, sponsored jointly by the Salem Board of Education, local industrial plants and the State Department of Vocational Education.

Shown in the pictures above are former students of the classes at work; top left, in the machine trades; top right, drafting; bottom left, electronics; and bottom right, auto mechanics.

The afternoon was enjoyed by playing euchre. Lunch was served. Thomas Gerber of Hubbard is visiting with his father, Jacob Gerber.

Mrs. Rozella Stryfeler is assisting with the cooking for the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends at Damascus this week. Her daughter, Mary Alice and son Gene accompanied her and are visiting with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Carl Fultz.

Renee Berlaire, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Berlaire who was stricken with polio, was discharged Wednesday from the St. Elizabeth Hospital, Youngstown, improved.

The first permanent settlement in the state of Washington was Ft. Vancouver, built in 1825.

The Politics Of The Matter

There is no way to separate the presidency of the United States from the political system that underlies the federal government. Even though President Eisenhower made no mention of partisanship in his report on the work of the 83rd Congress, he was asking for the election in November of a Republican majority in both houses.

The character of the 84th Congress, he explained, would be the key to the Eisenhower administration's program in 1955 and 1956. Since there has been a great deal of hinting on the part of Democrats that they might be friendlier to the President in the next two years than some Republicans, it will become necessary before election day to stress the partisan politics of the matter.

The Eisenhower program can succeed only if there are Republican majorities in the House and Senate. If the Democrats were to be a majority in one or both houses, they immediately would use their parliamentary position to block anything that might reflect credit on the Republicans. That is the two-party system. That is what it is supposed to do. That is why the presidency of the United States cannot be separated from the system that makes the nomination of presidents possible.

If President Eisenhower is not given a congressional majority in the 84th Congress, he will mark time until the end of his term. That is the politics of the matter. As this year's congressional elections come closer, the politics will have to be appraised realistically.

Gateway To Freedom

The world's most famous gateway to freedom, Ellis Island, in Upper Bay within sight of the Statue of Liberty and downtown New York is going to be abandoned on grounds of inefficiency. We suppose there will be a ceremony when this happens and someone will have figured out how many immigrants were put ashore on Ellis Island when they came to America.

It would be more important to appraise what the immigrants did for America. Being an immigrant here always has been a matter of relative timing. The first ones arrived hundreds of years ago, and the newest ones arrived this morning. All of us "arrived" sometime.

The phrase "melting pot" has gone out of fashion lately. It even has a bad connotation in careless minds that have grown heedless of the source of America's unprecedented strength—the boundless vitality of its immigrants and their common devotion throughout the years to the freedom they came here to find.

They found it. They used it. They created more wealth with it than all the earth's other people combined. They created enough for themselves and for others. They have had more laughter and less distress than any other body of human beings in the world. The insecurity which is the price of their freedom has bound them together in a brotherhood of sympathy and tolerance that has caused every other nation to look to Americans for aid in times of trouble. And who are these wonderful Americans?

Immigrants from every place in the world. Except for a few hundred thousand American Indians, not an aborigine in the lot! Maybe Ellis Island should be preserved as a national monument.

Government Of Law

Educated guesswork on what may lie ahead for the anti-Communist law passed in the closing days of the 83rd Congress indicates a long and indecisive legal battle. The Communists, themselves, will be in the thick of the battle, using the Constitution and the statutory laws to preserve their right to work for the overthrow of the government of the United States.

There will be the same ordeal by legality that dragged on for nine months in Federal Judge Medina's court in 1949, when the first 11 Communists were convicted on charges of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States government. There will be appeals and ultimately there will be a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court. Nothing could be more infuriating than this leisurely misuse of rights guaranteed in a government of law to destroy the self-same rights under a government of executioners.

Yet, this is the way a government of law preserves itself—by giving the sanctuary of protection to everyone who seeks it. Ultimately, the Communist conspiracy will be deprived of all the rights it seeks to take away forcibly from its intended victims. But it will be deprived by due process of law.

That is the practice that distinguishes a government of law from a government of men. In the latter, rights can be granted and taken away by the whims of men, including even the right to be alive.

Disservice To GOP

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Party's Anti-McCarthy Faction Alienating Voters

The morale of precinct workers and local organizations of the Republican party in several states is shot to pieces, and this may prove a major cause contributing to the loss of Republican control of both houses of Congress in the elections next November.

Letters received by this correspondent from many parts of the country tell of influential Republican party workers, including some county chieftains, who have decided to be passive in the coming campaign. Some of them say they will not even vote.

Reasons for the apathy inside the Republican party vary. Some of it is due to a lack of interest on the part of President Eisenhower, and particularly of the White House staff, in the fortunes of the regular organizations.

Some of it has arisen because the "Citizens for Eisenhower's" movement is being interpreted as a threat to discipline regular Republicans who have conscientiously adopted views differing from some of those of the President.

There is indeed a widespread feeling that, ever since the death of Sen. Taft, the so-called "liberal" wing has made a captive of President Eisenhower at the White House.

Perhaps the most serious cleavage in the Republican party arises from the mishandling of the McCarthy issue by the White House staff, whose inaction is believed to be responsible for goading President Eisenhower into the position of seeking deliberately to punish the Wisconsin senator.

FOR SEVERAL MONTHS the direct and indirect attacks on Sen. McCarthy at the President's press conferences have not gone unnoticed among Republicans who feel that the Wisconsin senator has performed a service to his country by arousing public interest with respect to Communist infiltration in America.

Whatever the merits of the controversy over congressional committee "methods" and however much some persons have come to dislike the senator from Wisconsin as a result of the recent televised hearings, the practical aspect from a political viewpoint is that literally millions of Republican voters think McCarthy now is being persecuted not for a few intemperate remarks and speeches made under provocation but because he fought the Communists in government.

These millions of voters include many hundreds of thousands who crossed over from the Democratic to the Republican party in several key states in the 1952 elections because they believed the Truman administration was "soft" on the Communist issue.

They have by no means been convinced that they should go back to the Democratic party, but they probably will make their protest in November by not voting at all.

The McCarthy issue is, of course, a troublesome one from any political viewpoint, and most candidates on the Republican side are fighting shy of any mention of it. The Republican candidates will suffer just the same because of President Eisenhower's part in the fight.

The fact remains that Sen. Flanders, a Republican, started the move for a formal "censure" by resolution of the Senate without the sanction of the Senate Republican Policy Committee. Then Eisenhower wrote a letter to Flanders praising his speech on censure, and the latter has since made public references to that Eisenhower letter.

Now, just at a time when the energies of the Republicans might better be spent in campaigning against the Democrats, a committee of six senators is to hold extensive hearings which will keep the McCarthy issue in the headlines throughout September and perhaps October.

FLANDERS STARTED out with a demand for the removal of McCarthy from his chairmanship of the committee on government operations and of the permanent subcommittee on investigations, and then switched to a proposal for "censure." It looks now as if the Vermont senator is going to have his original wish fulfilled. According to the election outlook as of today, not only is McCarthy going to lose his chairmanship in the coming elections, but so will all the other Republican chairmen of committees in both the House and the Senate.

At the grass roots the emotional reaction to the McCarthy issue is so strong that, even if the weakest of the percentage totals shown by the various Gallup Polls as to those who are on the McCarthy side is taken as an accurate measurement today of the pro-McCarthy sentiment, it is enough to defeat the Republican party by the simple device of their not voting at the coming elections.

The feeling is bitter because the whole anti-McCarthy attack at this last session of Congress was spearheaded by the Americans for Democratic Action—which backed Stevenson in 1952—and by an offshoot of that organization known as The National Committee for an Effective Congress. Flanders admitted on the floor of the Senate that he had been consulting with that group of New Dealers in the preparation of his charges against McCarthy.

ALL THIS is grist for the Democratic mill. Yet the Republican high command, beginning with the President and the White House staff, are doing little or nothing to heal the breach in the party, and the Democrats are doing everything they can to goad the Eisenhower staff to stir up more and more friction inside the party.

When the history of the Eisenhower administration is finally written, if there is such a thing as a medal for "distinguished political disservice," it might be awarded to the members of the White House staff and the administration officials who thought up the bright idea of a public fight with McCarthy by means of the Cohn-Schaine triviaities. The anti-McCarthy controversy has served to dramatize the dissension inside the Republican party and to aggravate it to a point almost beyond repair. That's why the betting on the election of a Democratic congress is growing every day to the point where any Republicans foolish enough to bet can demand big odds.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

The Doctor Answers

Readers often ask questions like today's first which puzzles patients and doctors as well.

Q—Can you say something about the relationship between fatigue and coronary thrombosis?

A—The basic cause of coronary thrombosis is the formation of a clot inside one of the arteries supplying blood to the heart. The clot forms in a blood vessel which has been thickened by deposits of fat, or calcium-like substances. It is hard to see how fatigue, at least over a short period, could have anything to do with this process.

Coronary thrombosis will appear in those who are perfectly fresh and well as well as in those who are fatigued, but actually no one is yet certain whether or not fatigue may or may not bring on more quickly an attack of coronary thrombosis.

Q—Will deep bruises lead to cancer?

A—Ordinarily not. There are some forms of cancer, particularly sarcoma of the bone, however, which do seem to start quite often after injury.

Q—X-rays have revealed a stomach hernia in a patient. Is there much danger involved in surgery for this condition?

Thoughts For Today

And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he. — Mark 12:32.

Converting grace puts God on the throne, and the world at His footstool; Christ in the heart, and the world under His feet. — Joseph Alleine.

Instead of being bled by blood relatives, why not give a pint to the Red Cross?

A Dual-Purpose Instrument!

Gloom And Doom Boys

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

It is no novelty in any age or in any place that the older generations see the movement of life before them with weary eyes.

Change is always uncomfortable for those who have become accustomed to their own ways. Jeremiah and Amos relive each century but so does St. Francis of Assisi who found in life itself, whatever the circumstance, an everlasting goodness.

So, in our times, there are prophets of gloom and doom who serve well because they counterbalance the over-optimistic and the blindly hopeful who believe that change is an end in itself.

The prophets of gloom and doom, to use a phrase, do not believe that change for the sake of change serves a logical design of living. The concept of the permanent revolution is grounded in biology, not in morals.

OUR PEOPLE do not divide themselves into conservatives, liberals and radicals—nor for that matter, do any other people. In the good, old days of the anarchism of Emma Goldman, there were those who insisted that as there could be no God, they would not accept conventional morality.

A friend of mine of those days wanted to marry a young lady of extraordinary charm. Although he called himself a philosophic anarchist, he insisted on making the girl an honest woman according to the mores of his New England ancestors. She, on the other hand, insisted that a lawful marriage would involve a repudiation of her noblest ideal, which was that she alone could determine what was right or wrong for herself.

I listened to this argument for months in my youth. They lived happily out of wedlock and had some children.

Then the issue arose that the children might not care to be illegitimate. It might embarrass the children when their playmates discovered the noblest ideals of the mother. So the parents finally married in accordance with the law.

Life is too complicated for anyone to set himself up as the sole judge even of his own conduct. He might not get a job on that yardstick of propriety; therefore even radicals wear dinner jackets with black ties to establish that one might think along the lines of Karl Marx and dress according to the style of Fred Astaire.

THE PROPHETS of gloom and doom are often very cheerful persons who have read much history and know some anthropology and psychology and even economics and who have reached the conclusion that while the human race has tried all sorts of experiments in living, some methods have worked better than others. The New Deal is as old as Joseph in Egypt who conceived of a planned economy that ultimately made everybody poor; Fascism was proposed by Saint-Simon at the time of the French Revolution but his followers called it the "New Christianity."

Many of his followers became arch-capitalists, the bourgeoisie of the 1830's, just as the current followers of Marx and Bakunin have produced a slave state while seeking a perfect society in which government will wither away.

The prophets of gloom and doom know that government will not wither away, just as they know that if a government spends too much, its currency will depreciate and the reservoirs of private capital will dry up. They know that an intermediate step of private monopoly precedes the era of government monopoly.

WHILE THE SO-CALLED liberal believes that he is saving his world from revolution, actually he is laying down a red carpet to welcome the revolution; that is, the change-over from private ownership of the means of production and distribution.

What he overlooks is the essential nature of those means, namely, that they consist not only of machines but of human beings.

Therefore, while he believes that he is producing a greater freedom for all, he is actually laboring for a government control of the lives of the people. Lenin saw that clearly and removed the liberals as an obstacle to scientific socialism. The conservatives ran away. So Lenin had the field to himself and his permanent revolution.

Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg in Germany were less successful because they themselves were of a liberal tradition.

In the United States, the prophets of gloom and doom give ballast to a trend toward the permanent revolution in the hope that it may run itself out.

Something Of Importance

By TRUMAN TWILL

Since there seems to be a lack of things of no importance today, a switch will be made to a subject of transcendent importance—the world's food supply. It is an odd thing when you think about it, that a fellow has no trouble any more finding something so important it gives him the jitters just to think about it.

The world is, as everybody knows if he concentrates on what is important, on the verge of starvation. It always has been on the brink of starvation and has kept getting more populous in spite of this for a reason so obvious it still has been given no official recognition.

Necessity is the mother of invention. The more mouths there were to feed, the more ingenuity there has been, with the result that today more mouths are being stuffed with more food than ever before, despite the fact most of them never have been stuffed with enough to satisfy their owners.

But within the range of orthodox agriculture there is a limit to the number of mouths that can be fed with crops that depend on arable soil, natural cycles of climate, human effort, machinery and traditional methods. The limit is closer than it ever seems to be in the only country on earth with a perpetual food surplus.

But there always is the invention mothered by necessity—the same kind of invention that made it possible to grow from pointed sticks to gang plows and from scythes and flails to combines and crop carriers in the Grain Belt. The current issue of World Health Organization's Newsletter describes what might be the ultimate answer to the problem of feeding a more populous world.

It is based on, of all things, sewage. All sewage retains plant nutrients. Sewage is in everlasting supply relative to the population of the world itself. This has been the sole secret of the uncertain food supply of vast populations like the Chinese, who have used sewage to fertilize food crops for thousands of years.

But the young scientist in the University of California whose inventiveness has been challenged by the necessity of raising more food, Harold B. Gotaas, is not thinking about anything so primitive as Chinese farming methods. He is thinking about the demonstrable fact that incredible amounts of the tiny plants called algae will grow in water containing nutrients found in sewage.

The biology of the phenomenon is extremely simple and widely understood. What is not so well understood is that the edible algae which could be grown in vast quantities under controlled conditions mature so quickly that men could be freed from dependence on slow-growing crops that are dependent on climate and arable land.

They could harvest a new crop every two days, 365 days a year. To be sure, no one wants to eat algae now because no one ever has, except the creatures that inhabit the sea—and they do all right. In fact, if there were any feasible way to get the stuff out of sea water there would be enough there in natural form to feed the world. But the ocean is too big to be strained for its edible plant life.

So there you have it—the world's food supply of tomorrow. The idea should be at least as startling as once were the ideas of eating potatoes, pork, grasshoppers, snails, horses, dogs, cats, corn and rattlesnakes. Ugh. Pass the algae.

Once Over

Happy Parking, General

Major General Kirke B. Lawton, Washington, D. C.

Dear General: Well, taken out of circulation early in the Fort Monmouth investigation following your warm outspoken co-operation with those exposing dangerous characters there, you are now being cancelled out in an extra fast retirement. You were passed over also on the promotion lists. Now comes the announcement of the retirement and a statement that you will get a parade at Fort Monmouth followed by a dinner and dance. That's nice. But I can think of nothing you need less.

I wish I could read your thoughts as the parade for you in marking a pre-packaged, large economy-sized farewell especially iced for a general who threw no blocks against an all-out Senate subcommittee effort to get at the truth at Fort Monmouth. I trust that, to save embarrassment all around none of the parades bear "the minutes of the last meeting" or transcript of the undisputed testimony that you got the works soon after your complete co-operation with the sub-committee.

I hope that during the procession no loud-speakers blare the recording of Secretary Stevens' statement to millions of TV listeners that you are a wonderful general and that it was just a coincidence that you got the foot so fast and so suddenly.

I have written the high brass urging that the band at Fort Monmouth choose its sections carefully and refrain from playing "Love Is Like That," "Dear Old Pal of Mine," "It Had To Be You" or "Hushabye Baby."

I would not want to hear it play the "Dentists Sonata" from the opera "It Don't Make Sense," "Bobbie Loves Me," "I Shudda Played It Safe" and "Out On a Limb" will be scratched too, I hope.

As for the dinner I suppose there will be cold cuts, which will be no novelty as you have been getting them ever since the Fort Monmouth hunt began. And, so far as dancing is concerned, you have certainly been getting a fine waltzing around if I ever saw one, so you should be in shape.

Lets see... what's the score in this Fort Monmouth case anyhow? Cohn out, McCarthy surrounded, Gen. Lawton out, a couple of Senate committee investigators beaunched and the dentist who clammed up on inquiries about Communist connection still doing nicely.

Well, General, life is like that. You rated better treatment after a life of loyal service to your country. I am not disputing the Army doctor's diagnosis of "circulatory ailments." But plenty of generals have them without getting cancelled out so fast.

Your circulatory ailment is obvious: your blood boils too fast in the face of slow motion against possible enemy agents in sensitive places. It ain't bad, but it can be costly.

Anyhow, best wishes and if you don't feel good during the Fort Monmouth parade don't ask for a doctor through Mr. Stevens.

Sincerely,
A TV Addict

At a Pine Orchard, Conn., summer hotel we observed Warren Hull, of "Strike It Rich" at a nearby table and felt a terrific impulse to rush over and say, "Look! Corn on the cob and I've left my uppers at home. I need a few hundred dollars for a plane to get them at once. Can you raise the money?"

The man reported to have designs on the life of Joseph Welch, counsel to the Army in the recent hearings, was arrested for stealing a taxi instead and denied he wanted to shoot him. Probably willing to admit no TV actor is that bad.

Churchmen Map Evangelism

Suggestions Made For Spread Of Christianity

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Christian leaders today turned to a discussion of their great, centuries-old, unfinished task — carrying the Gospel to millions of non-Christians.

Delegates to the Assembly of the World Council of Churches gathered to hear a report by the Committee on Evangelism.

Drafters of the report have heard many suggestions for increasing the number of Christians, who still are a minority in the world as a whole.

Among the ideas placed before them were these:

Messages and methods should be directed more to workers, particularly in Asia and other areas where the Communists are trying to recruit them.

Laymen, including writers of widely circulated copy, should play a larger part in spreading the faith.

Effective use should be made of the media of mass communication — movies, radio, television, newspapers, magazines, books — in this era of competition for access to the minds of men.

The delegates realize Christian task. They have been told that, despite their gains, the earth's total population is growing faster than the Christian population.

Evangelism is one of the sub-themes of the meeting of representatives of 163 denominations from 48 countries.

The main theme is "Christ—the Hope of the World."

A 51-page report on that subject was presented to the delegates Wednesday by a coordinating committee headed by Lutheran Bishop Hanns Lilje of Hanover, Germany.

It was accompanied by a statement from the committee. Debate, revolving principally about the statement, continued through the Wednesday night session without a decision.

A revised statement — subject to further revision — was scheduled to be placed before the delegates late today.

The report denounced communism as the road to "totalitarian dictatorship" and found some fault with democracies too.

Grangers Plan Election Sept. 3

"Where I would like to spend or did spend my vacation" was the answer to roll call when members of Willow Grove Grange met Aug. 20 to plan the election for the next meeting Sept. 3.

Willow Grove Grangers will be host to the Rural Youth organization for the mystery hayride and wiener roast Tuesday. One application was received for membership and the grangers donated $75 to the Magnetic Springs Hospital at Delaware for polio.

Mrs. Russell Myers, lecturer, presented the evening's program which centered around the "Back to School" theme, with readings by Mrs. Harry Sherwood, Mrs. William Werner, Donald Sanor and Mrs. Bryan Sanor.

A poem, "Things Work Out," was contributed by Mrs. Lloyd Sanor, and Ronnie Sanor played an accordion solo. Winners of the contest by Mrs. Lois Roth we conducted conducted by Mrs. Lois Roth were Billy and Sandy Sherwood.

Amvet Auxiliary Hears Report, Plans Meeting

Tax stamps were counted when members of the Salem Amvet Auxiliary met for a business session Tuesday night in the post home. Miss Twila Myers presided when plans were made for a social meeting Sept. 7.

Mrs. Alton Fields, treasurer, reported on the successful benefit dance undertaken recently by both post and auxiliary. The women attended a movie after the meeting.

Tuesday Night Club Meets With Mrs. Hart

Summer Salad Bowl Refreshes Meals

Let's take a refresher course in fresh summer vegetables. Bibb lettuce, sorrel, celery cabbage, and dandelion greens are unusual salad greens when combined with head lettuce, are summer plentiful. Head lettuce, plentiful year-around, outsells other salad green 4 1/2 to 1. When buying, look for firm, fresh, tender, green and mild flavored head lettuce.

Bibb lettuce, sometimes called "Kentucky Limestone," is a small butterhead variety developed in Frankfort, Ky., by Jack Bibb. It has a delightfully mild flavor, and mixes with any of the other salad greens. Sorrel, also known as "sour grass" has a pungent flavor. When blended in with at least three other greens, you get a very interesting taste combination.

Celery available the year round enjoys its peak month in July. It is a good diet food, as it contains many valuable vitamins and minerals, and has only 52 calories per pound.

Cabbage, a fleshy-leaved member of the mustard family, is available at all times, reaches its peak October through May.

Salad greens should be washed briefly when they are brought home. The best practice is to hold them, butt-up, under the faucet for the first washing. This takes off outer grit and sand, but keeps the water from soaking into the inner leaves. Water will "rust" leaves during storage.

The greens should be shaken and dried as thoroughly as possible and then wrapped in paper, cellophane, cloth or other covering and placed in the refrigerator. (Ventilated plastic bags are especially effective for this storage.)

Western Salad Bowl

One or 2 garlic buds
3/4 cup salad oil
3/4 quart crisp, chilled salad greens
6 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup vintage cheese, shredded
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 cups crisp toasted bread cubes (1/2 inch thick)
1 egg
Cut garlic buds in half and add to the 3/4 cup salad oil. Let stand several hours before serving. Tear salad greens into pieces and place in a large wooden salad bowl.

Combine 6 tablespoons oil, Worcestershire sauce, pepper, salt and cheese. Pour this dressing over salad greens.

Break the egg over the greens and pour lemon juice directly on the egg. Toss the salad well. Pour the 3/4 cup oil over the toast-cubes, stir quickly and add to salad.

Toss lightly and serve at once, while toast is still crisp.

4-H Club News

Nimble Thimble
Judging projects took place when members of the Nimble Thimble 4-H Club met at the Ellsworth Rd home of Mrs. Wade Schaefer and her daughter, Lois.

After the judging, the girls and their advisors enjoyed a chicken dinner. Judges for the day were Mrs. Elden Groves and Mrs. Stewart. A picnic was discussed for the next meeting.

Company dessert: Bake a cake from a package of yellow cake mix in layer pans. Mix sweetened sliced strawberries with diced sweetened fresh pineapple and spread between the cake layers just before serving. Top with vanilla ice cream and more of the strawberry-pineapple mixture.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heddlston of W. Pershing St have returned home from a vacation in Canada.

Obituary

Mrs. Harry Coy Jr.

Mrs. Lenora Coy, 78, died suddenly of pneumonia this morning at 9:30 in the Salem City Hospital. She had been in failing health for 18 months.

She had her home with her son, Orie W. Galbreath, at 780 Jennings Ave.

Born southeast of Salem in Butler Township July 3, 1876, she was the daughter of Robert and Lydia Ann Patterson Hannay.

Her husbands, Roland Galbreath and Harry Coy, Jr., and a grandson, Robert Galbreath, preceded her in death.

She lived all her life in this vicinity and was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Besides her son, Orie, she is survived by a great-grandson, Robert Primm, and a brother, Charles Hannay of Fairhope.

Service will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the Arbaugh - Pearce Funeral Home where friends may call Sunday afternoon and evening.

Burial will be in Hope Cemetery.

Ezra S. Knopp
Ezra S. Knopp, 63, of RD 5, Salem died at his residence at 1 a.m. today of complications following a two-year illness of a heart ailment.

Born in Green Township, Mahoning County Aug. 9, 1891, he was the son of Jonas and Sarah Hisey Knopp.

He married Susie Horst Dec. 21, 1916.

A retired carpenter and farmer, Mr. Knopp was a member of the Pleasant View Mennonite Church.

Survivors besides his widow include: Four daughters, Ida, Emma, and Mabel of the home, and Mrs. Henry Horst of West Salem; two sons, John Knopp of RD 5, Salem, and David Knopp of East Palestine; two sisters, Mrs. Israel Snyder of RD 5, Salem, and Mrs. Clayton Rohrer of Wadsworth; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral service will be Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Pleasant View Church following a short service at 2 p.m. at the residence on Knopp Road. Rev. David Weaver, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the residence any time Saturday.

Mrs. Quass Funeral

Funeral service for Mrs. Jessie Quass, who died Tuesday at her home in Southampton, N.Y., was held today at Hawthorne, N.Y.

Besides her husband, Ralph, a former Salem resident, other relatives here include Mrs. William Reese and Raymond Greenamyer, cousins.

John W. Regal

John W. Regal, 88, died at his home in Greenford at 3 a.m. today following a lingering illness.

Born in Ashtabula County April 23, 1866, he was the son of John and Elizabeth Owen Regal. He was the last of a family of eight.

He is survived by his wife, Lily Beck Regal; a son, Glenn Regal of California; and two grandchildren.

He lived in Greenford 20 years going there from Salem where he was last employed as a machinist by the Mullins Manufacturing Corp.

The body is at the Arbaugh - Pearce Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Airline Fights Bid To Be Bought Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lake Central Airlines of Indianapolis has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to dismiss the application of North Central Airlines, Minneapolis, for approval of an agreement to acquire Lake Central.

Lake Central also applied yesterday for a one-year extension of its certificate, through Dec. 31, 1955. Lake Central said it would apply for further extension after an employee group exercises its option to buy Lake Central and completes a refinancing program.

The application said a group of Lake Central employees was given an opportunity June 25 to purchase the 80,954 shares, or 97.48 per cent, of Lake Central stock held by the Weesner interests, on condition that:

1. The airline's certificate be extended for a year.

2. The application of North Central for acquisition of control be dismissed.

It added the employee group was arranging for at least $250,000 in additional financing.

The motion to dismiss, filed by counsel for the employee group, said North Central failed to pay the $100,000 purchase price by deadline time last February, and lacks resources to pay.

APPOINTED HOSTESSES
Mrs. Martin Lutsch, Jr., president of the Salem Democratic Women's Association, and the vice president, Mrs. Dean Cranmer, have been appointed to serve as hostesses at the dinner honoring Congressman Wayne Hayes Saturday evening at Memorial Hall in East Liverpool.

Plants in foreign countries are maintained by 27 Connecticut firms.

York Biblical Seminary and the New York University.

Rev. Stanley has been in pastoral work since 1925 and served the churches at Deerfield, Byhalia, West Mansfield, Alliance and Columbus, O., Hughesville, Pa., and Newport News, Va.

President Three Years

For the past 24 years, he has been affiliated with the Foreign Missionary Board. He has been president for three years and prior to that was first vice president.

Early in 1953 he concluded a three-month visit to Friends for foreign mission fields. His duties will include editing The Oriental News, official missionary paper.

Mrs. Stanley is the former Evangeline Mosher, sister of Rev. Robert Mosher of Damascus. They have two sons, Gene, graduate of Asbury College and Ohio State University, now with the department of Education & Information in the Army at Korea, and James, at home, a High School senior.

Rev. Earl Smith of Canton was re-elected superintendent of Church Extension work for the second time while Rev. Owen Glassburner of Damascus will begin his third year as field evangelist for the Yearly Meeting Sept. 1.

The Ohio Friend Book Concern, under the direction of Miss Freda Girsberger, is serving not only Yearly Meeting churches, but many other denominations, the annual report revealed. Total sales for the fiscal year was approximately $44,000, a gain of $3,000 over last year.

Miss Girsberger is assisted in this work by Ralph C. Coppock and Miss Annette Wheeler.

Miss Alice Moon, superintendent of the Friends Rescue Home, Columbus, reported that 62 girls and 39 babies had been cared for at the home during the past year.

Miss Moon stated that the home not only helps the unfortunate, "but that it is a friend to the friendless."

Reading Clerk Resigns
Prof. Byron Osborne of Cleveland, who resigned as reading clerk after 30 years of service, is being replaced by Miss Elizabeth Warner of the Asbury College faculty.

Joseph Mosher of Cardington, stewardship superintendent, in his report stated that the per capita giving for the fiscal year was $103.10. This was $10 more than last year. The total amount given this year was $645,551.63 as compared with $575,256.55 last year.

The Education Committee's report showed that the YM has 69 teachers and 82 students in college. Sixty of that number are enrolled in Cleveland Bible College.

Two Adrian, Mich., women have donated 400 volumes to the minister's lending library, which is housed in the Ohio Friends Book Concern building.

Prof. Osborne, president of Cleveland Bible College, told the YM that there were 310 students enrolled in the college last year. One hundred of them attended night sessions.

The Christian Endeavor Union, meeting Thursday afternoon, renamed Rev. Claude Mosher president for the second time. Formerly of Salem, he is pastor of the Quaker Hill Friends Church, south of Sebring. Other officers are:

Vice president, Bryan Teague of Brewster; recording secretary, Madelyn Marsh of Mt. Gilead; corresponding secretary, Lois Sams of Beloit; treasurer, Rev. Paul Ryser of Van Wert; missionary superintendent, Mrs. Edwin Mosher of Westerville; publicity editor, Paul Rober of Salem; member of improvement committee, Rev. Russell Myers of Canton; member of Quaker Canyon committee, Kenneth Cobbs of Damascus. The union supports Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Cattell, missionaries to Central India.

A report of the Foreign Missionary Board was read this morning, while this afternoon reports were given on work done by the CE union and Board of Christian Education.

New ministers will be dedicated and recorded Saturday evening and six services are scheduled for Sunday, the closing day.

21-Year-Old Lisbon Mother Ill With Polio
LISBON — A 21-year-old mother, the Lisbon area's first polio victim of the season, was admitted Thursday to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Youngstown.

Mrs. Betty Coy of RD 3, stricken with an apparently mild case, leaving her with a weakness in the back, has two children, John Jr., 4, and Judy, 1. The children and the patient's husband, John, have been given gamma globulin shots.

This is the second case reported this year to the county health department from the general health district, Dr. George Pantera, health commissioner said.

The first was a three-year-old East Rochester girl, Renee Bierlair. This makes the eighth victim in the county this year, including six from Salem.

ical Socialist (moderate) or Independent Republican parties.

Mendes-France may ask for the resignations of all his ministers, with the date left blank for the Premier to fill in if he needs to use them.

Through this device, the Premier would avoid an open Cabinet split on EDC and the ministers could vote individually according to their wills. Normally all members of the Cabinet vote as a body, but with this device the Premier would not have to reconstruct his Cabinet until after the Assembly vote.

A group of influential deputies who favor EDC met last night to discuss the possibility of putting off the vote until more favorable conditions for its passage could be created.

Mendes-France has strongly opposed any delay, arguing that France already has made too many enemies with laggard tactics. Of the six prospective members, only Italy and France have not ratified the treaty.

Despite his eagerness to get the debate going, the Premier has been unwilling to back EDC to the extent of making it the subject of a confidence vote in the Assembly.

One Hurt, Two Cited In Area Road Mishap
Two drivers were arrested and a passenger in one vehicle was slightly injured in a traffic mishap on Rt. 30, two miles north of East Liverpool, at 4 a.m. today.

According to state highway patrolmen, an auto driven by Harry Allen, 30, of Lorain, forced an approaching car, driven by Donald Kaylor, 30, of Cleveland, off the road when Allen began to pass a truck. A passenger, Loretta Kaylor, received a bruised arm and a lacerated finger. Allen was cited for passing without the assured clear distance and Kaylor was arrested for improper vehicle registration.

top honors with the senior and junior grade champions and reserve champions in both sections.

Willis Zimmerman and son of RD 3, Salem, exhibited the senior and grand champion Jersey bull, while senior champion and junior and grand champion females were shown by Homer Slagle of Poland.

Results of dairy judging in other breeds:

Holstein, L. L. Mott of Canfield, junior and grand champion bull and junior champion female; Glen Saviers of East Palestine, senior and grand champion female.

Brown Swiss: Thomas Rudebeck of RD 1, Leetonia, senior champion female, and John Bartels of Wellsville, junior and grand champion female.

Ayrshire: Jack Brudery of RD 5, Salem, junior and grand champion bull and senior champion female; Audrey Mae Herrold of RD 1, Leetonia, junior and grand champion female.

Milking shorthorns: All champions shown by Howard S. Withers and Sons of Petersburg.

Harness racing, delayed over two hours until the wet track was put into condition, was highlighted by the victories of two Columbiana County horses.

"Love Record" owned and driven by Fred McKenzie of Wellsville won the first heat in the two-year-old and 25 trot in 2:26 and three-fifths. He was beaten in the second heat by "Skyballad" owned by Josephine Maglich of Imperial, Pa. The Pennsylvania horse bested the Wellsville trotter's time in 2:23 and three-fifths.

In the 2:19 trot, which closed yesterday's racing fair, a Lisbon horse, Tica Tica, sped down the stretch to finish the first heat in 2:18. The trotter is owned by J. J. Klemann. On the sulky was Richard Morris of Lisbon. Second heat in this event was copied by Hope Valley John owned by C. K. Buel of Croton, O.

Winners in the free-for-all pace were Countess Harmony, owned by Evan Evans Jr. of Hubbard, first heat, 2:16 and two-fifths, and Silver Bee's Baby, owned by Clyde Williams of Cadiz, second heat, 2:15 and four-fifths.

With 14 heavy teams competing in the horse pulling contests, William Trimm's mixed roan and chestnut team weighing 3,600 pounds, pulled a record load of 8,500 pounds a distance of seven feet four inches. The North Jackson horses were aided in their attempt by the slippery track.

The weight is between 2,000 and 3,000 pounds heavier than the normal pull on a dry track, according to Walter Johnson of Negley, in charge of the horse department.

A two-ton team, heaviest in the event, owned by Everett Cain of Berlin Center tugged 8,500 pounds of pigiron two feet five inches for second place. Third and tenth places were won by two teams owned by the Greenamyer Brothers of North Jackson. The lightest team, 3,170 pounds, owned by Ross McCoy of New Waterford, placed seventh.

Owners of other teams and their rank are: Tom Cox of Lisbon, RD 5, fourth; Ed Popp of Smith's Ferry, Pa., fifth; Russell Entriens of Leetonia, sixth; McCoy seventh; Wilbet Jones of Leetonia, eighth.

Lawrence McCoy of Rogers, ninth; Greenamyer tenth; Cox, eleventh; Kenneth Sheen of Alliance twelfth; Ralph Cane of Alliance thirteenth and Howard Blanchard of Kensington, fourteenth.

For last day fairgoers Saturday, heavyweight draft horses will pull for their share of prize money in an open-to-the-world contest at 9:30 a.m. Final harness races are scheduled for 1:30.

New acts tonight and Saturday night at 8:30 will feature the variety show which includes ventriloquists, comedians and tightwire artists. Galen Greenisen, fair board president said today.

The East Liverpool barbershop chorus will present a concert Saturday night.

About 4,000 attended Thursday, but crowds are expected to pick up today and tomorrow, Greenisen said.

Nine Boys Join Explorer Scouts

Explorer Scouts

Nine boys were present at last night's organizational meeting of the Explorer Scouts, Aubrey Hayes reports. The unit, sponsored by the Salem American Legion Post, will hold its first regular meeting on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion Hall.

According to Hayes, boys between the ages of 14 and 18 who are interested in joining the group may still do so by either attending Monday's meeting or by obtaining an application blank from Jake Ferrier at Fisher's News Agency or from Hayes at the water department office in city hall.

The explorer program is dedicated to such activities as camping, vocational guidance, canoeing, field trips to military and industrial installations and training in emergency and civil defense service.

Present at last night's meeting were members of the scout committee, Hobart Butcher, Archie Bricker, A. B. Combs, Ralph Templeton, and Edward Furrer advisors Hayes and Donald Weingart and Cliff Whinnery, legion post commander.

Public Health Essay Winners Get Awards
LISBON — Awards for prize essays in the public health essay contest sponsored by the Columbiana County Board of Health were presented to three winners today at the County Fair.

First prize of $25 was won by Jim Hahn, 14-year-old student at West Local. Joan Nightingale of No. 16 school won second prize of $15 and Connie Jones of Salineville school third prize of $10.

A gold trophy was presented by Walter Tschabold of RD 2, Minerva, president of the board to West Local School for having the first prize winner.

The trophy will be rotated for three years and will become the permanent possession of the school winning three times.

Police 'Tough' Measures Cut Young Rowdiness In Detroit

DETROIT (P)—Young rowdiness is on the downgrade in Detroit.

Authorities have their fingers crossed. But there is definite evidence in the police record that boy gangs aren't the critical problem they were just a month ago.

The police youth bureau estimates this kind of juvenile trouble has fallen off 25 per cent. The cure—if it is a cure—has probably been in part a derivative of the old "spare the rod and spoil the child" rule.

The courts have adopted a "get tough" policy. Teen-age offenders have been packed off to jail. Hereafter they got off with a reprimand, as a rule.

Adult groups also set out to do something about it, offering aid to civic authorities.

Earlier this summer the Motor City was alarmed over recurrent outbreaks of kid gang violence.

Rival gangs, often armed, met in actual combat. Boys got badly hurt. Sometimes they were knifed. There were neighborhood depredations too. Vandalism was frequent. School buildings were particular victims of plunder and destruction.

At times there were wanton street attacks upon citizens. A crackdown on the youngsters has now been in effect for one month.

Inspector Ralph Baker, head of the police youth bureau, said the decrease in juvenile rowdiness stems from the courts' "stern attitude" and an aroused citizenry.

"People have begun to step forward and ask what can be done," Baker said.

Baker distinguished between "rowdiness" and actual juvenile crime. In the latter, he said, there has been no decrease.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo's youth committee, cooperating with the police, courts, schools, churches and other groups, set out on a broad program against rowdiness and delinquency in general.

One judge insists on having the parents in court whenever a youthful offender appears before him.

A stern police policy is supported. Churches are trying to stir up more interest on the part of young people. There are neighborhood plans for teaching errant youngsters manners and discipline.

Urge Cleveland Be Paid For Sheppard Probe

CLEVELAND (P)—The Cuyahoga County Grand Jury which indicted Dr. Samuel Sheppard on a murder charge recommended yesterday that Cleveland suburbs pay this city's police department an annual retainer for aid in solving major crimes.

"Municipalities surrounding Cleveland have used the services of the Cleveland Police Scientific Bureau at no cost to them but at a considerable cost to the City of Cleveland. We feel that it is an unfair burden on Cleveland to foot the entire cost," the jury said.

While the jury did not mention the Sheppard case by name, it referred to "a recent, shocking murder case." And in an obvious reference to the authorities of Bay Village, the home of the handsome osteopath, the jury wrote: "Finally, in desperation, they turned to Cleveland police for help, but long after the trail had grown cold."

It has been estimated that Cleveland police will ask Bay Village for about $20,000 for their help in investigating the case.

In addition to an annual retainer fee, Cleveland police should get a predetermined amount per case, the jury report said.

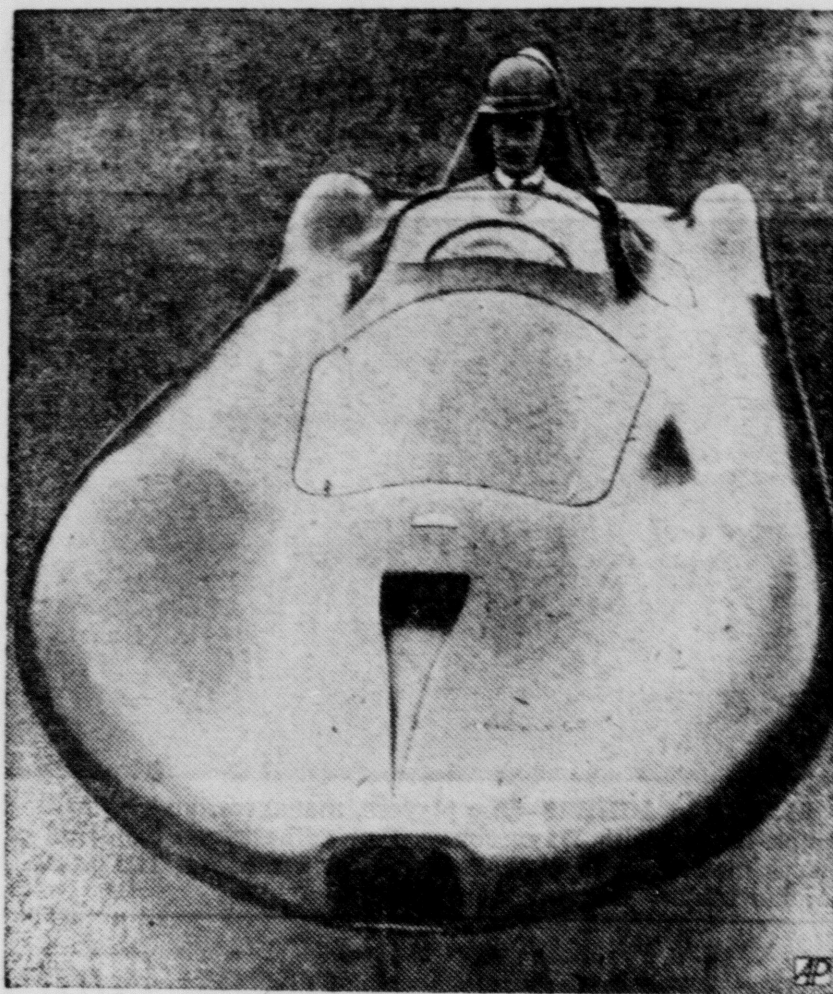

Dr. Sheppard is awaiting trial on a first degree murder charge. His pregnant wife, Marilyn, was found bludgeoned to death July 4 in their lakeshore home. He has pleaded innocent, maintaining his wife was killed by an intruder.

East Liverpool Man Fined On Morals Count

After pleading guilty to a charge of passing obscene literature to children with intent to induce them to lead acts, Joseph Alois, 39, of East Liverpool was fined $100 and given a three-month suspended jail sentence by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Wednesday.

The mill worker admitted dropping a lascivious note to two East Liverpool girls, 12 and 13.

James Miller, acting probate officer who arrested Alois at his home, said the married man drove his car along side the girls in Thompson Park in East Liverpool Aug. 7 and tossed the scribbled message at their feet.

STREAMLINER—Designer Rodney Clarke, although looking like a man riding a turtle, readies the new Connaught racing car in preparation for a test run at Goodwood, England.

The frightened girls fled to their nearby home and reported the incident to their parents who notified police.

Judge Tobin warned Alois if he appears in his court again on a similar charge he will be fined $1,000 and sentenced to a year in jail.

Canton Widower, Widow Found Dead

CANTON, Ohio (P)—A 54-year-old widow and a widower who boarded at her home were found dead there yesterday, Coroner E. B. Mozes ruled the man shot himself, but said an autopsy was needed to determine the cause of the woman's death.

Yesterday was the woman's birthday, and a handmade birthday card from the boarder was found on her ironing board, with a handkerchief inside.

Mrs. Myrtle Ann Groner, a widow since last April, was found in her upstairs bedroom with bruises and fingernail marks on her neck.

The body of Bruce Walker, 53, was in another upstairs bedroom. His right temple was pierced by a bullet from a gun found on the floor.

Coroner Mozes said Walker had been despondent since his wife died and had been given a room by Mrs. Groner in a effort to cheer him up.

A neighbor, Mrs. W. E. Giblow, discovered the bodies after her phone calls to the house were not answered.

Gas Firm Given Okay To Collect Rate Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. today received Ohio Supreme Court permission to collect a $1,284,529 emergency rate increase from consumers in five eastern Ohio counties. The company agreed to post an $800,000 bond to assure refunds should it lose a court battle over the rate increase.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt granted permission to collect the higher rate after hearing a company request to stay revocation of the rate boost.

Wynn's Hurling, Smith's HR Nips Nats; Feller To Go Tonight

Early Chucks Brilliant 2-Hitter As Tribe Records 2-1 Triumph

WASHINGTON (AP)—Old Bob Feller, rocking along in the best season he's had since leading the league's pitchers in 1951, tries tonight against Washington to safeguard Cleveland's 4½-game bulge over the New York Yankees.

Thanks to a two-hit pitching job by Early Wynn and an eighth-inning homer by Al Smith, the Tribe won the opener of the series last night 2-1 for a record of five out of six on the current road trip.

Johnny Schmitz (7-7), a three-time loser to the Tribe so far, is the probable Washington moundsmen tonight.

Feller's sparkling 11-2 mark, which includes eight complete games and three others in which he lasted until the ninth, compares with a 10-7 record he posted last season and 9-13 the year before.

In last night's game, Wynn did some of his finest pitching this year, and that made up for a light Tribe hitting attack. Early struck out five and walked two in chalking up his 18th victory against nine losses.

The only run off Wynn was unearned. In the fourth inning, shortstop Sam Dente muffed a grounder by Pete Runnels. After Mickey Vernon fouled out, Jim Busby forced Runnels at second. Then Roy Sievers belted the first hit of the game off Wynn—a 380-foot blast that ticked outfielder Larry Doby's glove before it hit the wall for a double that scored Busby.

A line single by Busby in the seventh was the Senators' only other hit.

The run offset a marker Cleveland got in the first inning. Bob Avila walked and took second on a wild pick-off throw by Mickey McDermott. Doby singled to left to bring Avila home.

Smith led off the eighth with the game-winning homer, a 400-foot clout down the left field line.

Al Rosen hasn't had a hit since Sunday, nor has catcher Jim Hegon. Rosen is 0-for-13, Hegon 0-for-12.

The Indians' remaining home night games will be started at 8 o'clock instead of 8:30. It's an experiment similar to the 8:15 p. m. starting time tried last year for after-dark ball games at Municipal Stadium. If the fans like it, the earlier hour may be adopted.

Next 5 Days To Tell Story Of NL Race

By CHRIS EDMONDS
MILWAUKEE (AP)—The next five days will tell the story of the 1954 National League pennant race.

The front-running New York Giants open a two-game series against Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee Braves, the league's hottest team, tonight, with the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers moving in for four starting with a Sunday double-header.

The Giants, who held a commanding 15½-game lead when the Braves opened up their drive, were down to only 6½ when they moved in for the vital series. The Braves have beaten the league leaders in their last six meetings, sweeping three-game series both here and at New York.

"If we're gonna win it, we gotta win it here," Grimm repeated again yesterday after the Braves had won their fourth in a row, beating Philadelphia 3-2.

The Braves themselves, despite a modest record of 32 wins and 28 losses in County Stadium, figure they can do it. As a matter of fact, they've thought it since the last time the Giants were due in back in mid-July. And with Bobby Thomson in the regular lineup for the first time since his spring training ankle fracture, the spirit is even higher.

Columbus Advances Into 3rd Place In Association

By The Associated Press
Columbus jumped into third place in the hot American Association playoff berth battle by blanking Kansas City 6-0 last night as Toledo knocked Minneapolis into the fourth spot with a 9-6 decision.

With Indianapolis on a stampede to the championship—holding a 12½ game edge—interest centers on the next three spots for playoff positions.

Second place Louisville holds a 5½ game bulge over the Red Birds who are ½ game ahead of the Millers.

St. Paul, Toledo and Kansas City all are only 3½ games out of the first division.

Bliss Loses 4-3 To Salem Tool

Old Timers, Mullins Winners On Forfeits

Salem Tool edged Bliss 4-3 in the only AA game played in the city softball leagues at Keely Field Thursday. The Old Timers won over Leontia and Mullins received credit for a triumph over Butler Grange, both decisions coming on forfeits.

In the "AA" standings released this morning by Dave Briskin, official scorer, the top three teams in the league, Deming's, Salem Tool and Mullins, have playoff berths clinched. Three teams, Butler Grange, Bliss and Paul and Joe, remain in the fight for the fourth spot, although Butler is favored by virtue of its one-game lead over the other two contenders.

In last night's action, a pair of two-run homers, blasted out by Jerry Jeffries and John Baker, gave Tool's Bill Herman the win over Bliss' "Muscles" Russell.

Russell smashed a two-run single to tie the count in the second inning and Jack Rance's infield hit scored Bliss' third tally and gave the Cardinals a 3-2 lead at the end of three innings.

Russell struck out nine men and allowed six hits. Herman fanned three and gave up seven safes. Leo Line, Jeffries and Baker, all of Tool, and Pete Davis of Bliss each recorded two hits.

Crucial Giant-Brave Series Begins Tonight At Milwaukee

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The Bobby Thomson-Johnny Antonelli winter trade between New York and Milwaukee is shaping up more and more as the key to the 1954 National League pennant.

It's been almost all in the Giants' favor so far. Thomson broke his ankle during spring training and has been benched as a regular until this week. But tonight and tomorrow the Braves get their chance to reap a few dividends.

Milwaukee has beaten New York six in a row and when the Giants invade County Stadium for this two-game series, they'll find Thomson fit and ready for the first time.

In his second game in the starting lineup he drilled two doubles and a single yesterday as the Braves edged Philadelphia 3-2 and crept within 6½ games of the Giants.

Antonelli, the Giants' prize in the deal, won't show against his former mates. He worked yesterday, winning his 19th game by shading the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in the second half of a double-header. The Cubs snapped a seven-game New York winning spurge with a 4-3 verdict in the opener.

Second-place Brooklyn, 3½ behind New York, was idle yesterday but opens a two-game series in St. Louis tonight.

The Cardinals held on to fourth place last night although they lost 2-1 to Pittsburgh. Jerry Lynch drove in both runs and bonus rookie Laurin Pepper recorded his first major league victory.

In the American League, Cleveland edged Washington 2-1. New York thumped Detroit 11-2. Chicago split with the Philadelphia Athletics, winning 8-1 but losing 4-1, and Baltimore broke its 14-game losing streak, defeating Boston 5-3.

Irv Noren, American League batting leader, slammed four hits in New York's runaway against the Tigers. Bob Grim gave up eight hits in winning his 17th game, tops on the Yankee staff, and was backed by a 17-hit attack.

The Orioles pounded eight doubles and four singles in breaking out of their losing streak at Boston. Bob Turley blanked the Red Sox until the eighth, when Ted Williams homered into the right field stands. The blast was the 24th of the season for Williams and the 361st of his career, putting him in a tie with Joe DiMaggio for fifth in the all-time list.

Canadian Football's TV Debut Saturday

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The great Canadian football experiment is only two days away, and the ones who are doing the most sweating about it as the fateful hour approaches are the two American "experts" who have been entrusted with the task of explaining to a nationwide television audience what in the world is going on.

High in a booth all by themselves when the Toronto and Ottawa professionals have at one another on Saturday afternoon will be Lindsey Nelson, NBC's able commentator and Jim Crowley, who learned considerable American football as a member of Notre Dame's famous "Four Horsemen," as coach at Fordham and as president of the All-American Conference, deceased.

Nelson will be expected to call off the play-by-play, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, for his American audience, and Crowley to supply the "color" during periods when there's no action on the field.

The gridiron explorers were up North last week to watch an exhibition game and to see if all their reading up on the Canadian rules had really sunk in. Crowley's eyes popped when one of the teams, taking advantage of the wider Canadian playing field, suddenly ripped off a triple lateral pass that carried out to the side line and sprang a man free.

Actually, neither of our nervous experts expects to have too much trouble interpreting the Canadian version unless something unusually peculiar happens, and both of them think the American audience is going to like the swifter moving game very much after a brief in doctrination.

"There really isn't a great deal of difference once you get beyond the fact that there's a fifth man in the backfield and that they get only three chances to make a first down instead of four," Nelson says. "There are a lot of other little differences that Jim and I will have to watch for, but they won't mean a lot to the audience."

What will the car you buy be worth next year?

Here's the tip-off: Throughout the industry, there's a definite trend toward V-8 power, and Ford is the only car in the low-price field that offers you a V-8 engine . . . plus over-all styling and mechanical features most like the new cars of tomorrow.

Keep these things in mind.

Will it have stay-in-style looks?

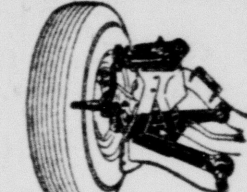

With its smooth, uncluttered lines, Ford is widely recognized as the car with the best dressed body. Each of the 28 models is right "at home" in the finest places. And it will keep its appeal.

Will it have a

V-8 engine?

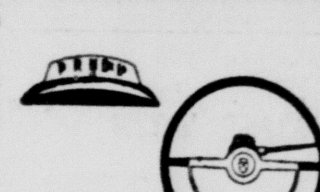

Only Ford in its field offers you 2 low-friction, deep-block engines . . . the 130-h.p. Y-block V-8—the only V-8 in Ford's field—or the 115-h.p. I-block Six.

Will it have new

Ball-Joint Suspension?

Gone are kingpins! You ride easier, steer easier on ball joints. And only Ford in its field offers this feature which is sure to spell extra value at trade-in time.

Will it have the latest power assists?

Ford has all five! And they do more. For example: Where another low-priced car has power to lift front windows only, Ford's lifts all four. And power moves the

Barrett Praises Squad In Talk To Booster Club

By LOWELL FLEISCHER
"We've got the best group of boys out since 1950," Quaker football coach Ben Barrett told members of the Salem Booster Club at their regular meeting last night at the Memorial Building.

"But remember that we have a mighty tough schedule," Barrett added, "when you talk of going undefeated."

Barrett said that he needed to make a few changes in the line and build reserve strength.

Salem should have a good fast backfield this season, with Captain Jim Beard going at right half and either Dale Middeker or Herb Haschen at left half. All three of these boys are fast, and all starred for SHS track coach Frank Tarr last spring.

Both Beard and Middeker are seniors; Haschen is junior. Although Beard weighs only around 145 pounds, he is rough and likes to mix it up. Beard was the Quaker's leading ground gainer last season.

Middeker weighs in the neighborhood of 165. He was out for football his first two years of High School but didn't come out last season. He will probably get the nod over Haschen because of his experience. He is a former end.

Jack Alexander, a junior, weighs about 170 pounds and will probably go at the fullback slot when the season gets rolling. A senior, Jack Todd, also has been working out at the fullback position. He also weighs about 170 and should see plenty of action this season.

Senior Ray Hertel has been working out with the first string at the quarterback slot. Hertel is a good ball handler and, despite his small size, is a good passer although he has some trouble on "quickie" passes over the line. He weighs about 145.

Jim Fife, another senior, is also working out at quarterback. He was out for football his first two years but didn't come out last season. Fife is a little bigger than Hertel.

Barrett has two sophomore quarterbacks in Twink Jackson and Skip Yeager. Yeager is a left handed passer.

Assistant Coach Sam Pridon, Bob Sebo, and Bill Megert have been working with the freshmen and report some good players in the group. "They're far from polished, but like to get in there and mix it up," Megert said. The Quakers will have a scrimmage session with Boardman Wednesday morning at Reilly Field, the first of the season.

The Quaker line was most affected by last year's graduation. Larry Stoffer and Chuck Harris have been running at the end positions and will probably remain there. Harris is the biggest of the two, weighing about 180. Stoffer weighs about 160.

Bob Domencetti and Harold Garloch, both with three years of football experience, have been working out at the guard slots. Jim Crawford, Curtis McGee, Glen Humphreys, Wayne Flint, Bob Hartzell and John Ehrhart are other good line prospects. From these Barrett will get two tackles and still have plenty of bench strength.

The Quakers continued two-a-day workouts today, still working mostly with fundamentals and running exercises. Starting next week the Barrettmens will get into the rough of it with inter-squad scrimmages, blocking and tackling practice.

Installation of the new football scoreboard is complete with the exception of a horn to sound at the quarters and half time. Later in the football season the Booster Club will sponsor a trip for football boys to a Pitt game.

Plans to have the players' pictures taken and placed in downtown store windows have also been made.

Sharon Speedway Sets Program Of Racing

Sharon Speedway will return to its Saturday night program of stock car racing after a one week absence because of the special 100-lap sportsman race last Sunday.

Salem's Steve Lesick won the 100-lapper Sunday and will be racing at Sharon again Saturday.

This will be the last Saturday night of racing at Sharon this season. Racing will continue on Sunday afternoons beginning Sept. 5.

CANTON WINS

ELKHART, Ind. (AP) — Canton, Ohio, yesterday won its first round game, 13-9, against Decatur, Ill., but was defeated by Chicago, 1-0, in the second round at the ABC Great Lakes junior baseball tournament. Toledo was eliminated after two defeats.

Optional Pass Gives Split-T Edge - - Dodd

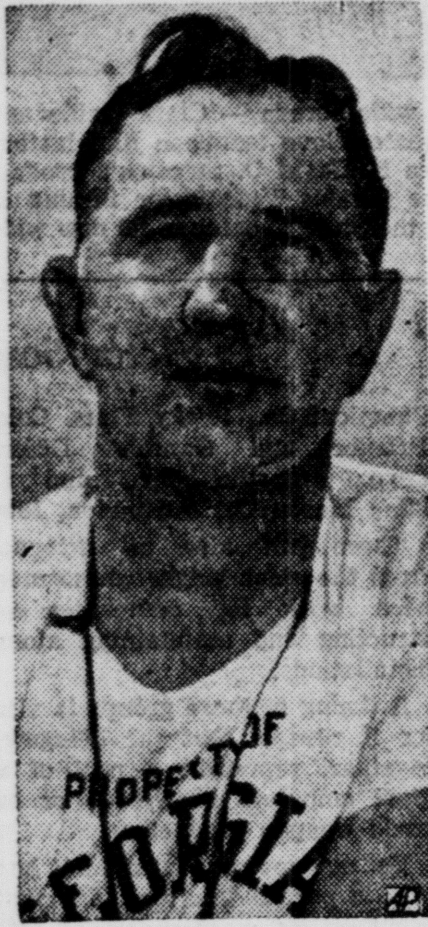

By BOBBY DODD

Football Coach Georgia Tech

It's simple why we are going to the split T this year.

We played against split T teams for three years and found them the toughest to stop. We couldn't stop them so we're going to join them. Our split T won't be the true T, however. We are going to add some things to it.

Last year we used part of the split T. We also used what has become known as the "belly series" which is our bread and butter play. We will keep that.

The belly series was started by the College of the Pacific. We didn't originate it but we exploited it. Others are using it — Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana State; in fact about three-fourths of the teams in our section. Rice in the Southwest Conference employs it.

This series consists of the quarterback faking to the fullback by running along holding the ball in the fullback's stomach, then pitching off to a halfback.

We have been using the conventional T for eight years. I installed it in 1945 when I became head coach.

The difference in the conventional T and the split T is that the split T splits the line. This is for the purpose of also splitting the defense.

The optional play of the quarterback is another advantage. The quarterback runs close to the line and can keep or pitch out to another man.

Mechanically, the split T is not as good for passing as the single wingback or the conventional T. But the opposition is so conscious of the threat of a running game that it makes the passing go.

What happens is that the running threat pulls in the defense and allows your own pass receivers to get clear.

75 Boys Out For Football At Lisbon

Lisbon football coach Bud Bucher is putting his squad through two-a-day practice sessions in preparation for the coming season.

Seventy-five boys reported for the first practice and Bucher had only 60 uniforms to distribute.

Five of last year's Lisbon forward wall graduated, leaving only Scott Blackburn and Chick Ashton.

The only returning backfield letterman is Jerry Rose, an all-Tri-County selection from last season. Rose led the county scoring last year.

Bucher isn't too optimistic about his team's chances, although he says his backfield is coming along fine.

Bucher pointed out that most of the Tri-County squads will be having peak seasons this year. "Many of the teams will have seven or eight men back from their 1953 teams," he said.

He expects East Palestine, Sebring and Minerva to be especially tough.

"It isn't so much that we've declined this year," Bucher said, "but the other teams in the league will be at greater strength than a any time in recent years."

THURSDAY'S STARS

BATTING — Danny O'Connell, Milwaukee Braves, drove in the winning run with a bases-loaded single with two out in the ninth 3-2.

PITCHING — Early Wynn, Cleveland Indians, gave up only two hits in winning his 18th game, 2-1 over Washington.

Stratton's Wins Class B Championship

Stratton's Chevrolet won the 1954 Class B Championship Thursday at Kelley Field, outlasting Bloomberg's 7-5 in the final game of a best-of-three championship series.

Each squad had won one tilt previously in the eliminations.

Stratton's held a 7-0 lead going into the last of the seventh inning with hurler Bob Spiker pitching perfect ball for the first six innings, retiring 18 Bloomberg batters consecutively.

Leading off in the final frame, Stan Kataro broke the spell with a single. Two other hits, two walks and a pair of errors resulted in five runs but the rally fell short.

Lee Morrow led the winners' batting with a pair of doubles.

Bill Gotschall of Stratton's won the batting championship trophy this season with a .429 mark. Paul DeCola was the league umpire, with Bill Schuster serving as official scorer.

Two Clevelanders Remain In Amateur

DETROIT (AP)—The least noticed, and possibly the best, of the prominent golfers in the 1954 National Amateur Championship is Robert Sweeney, who moves in the best social, financial and golfing circles of Long Island, Palm Beach and London.

Going into today's 36-hole semifinals, he was the only "name" player left in the tournament and his name was one that had been half-forgotten by everyone but his opponents until he came through yesterday with a sharp 4 and 3 victory over Dale Morey, last year's runner-up.

The other survivors were Arnold Palmer, a 24-year-old former Coast Guardsman and Wake Forest College player who is rated tops among the rising young amateur stars; 36-year-old Eddie Meister, who may have won more matches in this tournament than anyone around; and Dr. Ted Lenzyk, 33-year-old Newington, Conn., dentist whose golf reputation has been obscured by that of his sister Grace.

The semifinal matches sent the two Clevelanders, Palmer and Meister, against one another, and Sweeney against Lenzyk.

BROWNS PLAY TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first real pre-season test for two strong National Football League teams comes tonight before some 60,000 fans when the Cleveland Browns clash with the Los Angeles Rams. The Rams, who defeated the Browns 27-9 in a similar exhibition a year ago, have been installed as favorites by from seven to 10 points.

San Francisco's Charm

By HAL BOYLE

By HAL BOYLE
SAN FRANCISCO — Leaves from a touring notebook:
What is the charm that makes up San Francisco?

Every great world city, like every outstanding human being, has a personality that sets it apart from others. Who could awake in Paris and confuse it with Rome? Who could mistake the fierce power of New York for the grey, durable grandeur of London, Hong Kong has a lure inherent even in its name, which sounds like the bonging of temple gongs.

But what is the magic of San Francisco? One way for an out-lander to learn the secret of a city is to ask the people in it why they choose to live here.

I asked that question of a number of residents here. The answers rather surprised me. Not one mentioned specifically the things that San Francisco is most famous for — the unmatched splendor of its setting, its historic past, its variety of food, its cosmopolitan air.

Here are a few replies:
"Everybody is an individual out here. People still respect each other. A pedestrian even has equal rights with a motorist. Folks have more tolerance. They don't quibble over small matters."

"San Francisco has a sense of vitality and the unexpected. You don't have the feeling that everything is over and done with. Anything can happen."

"Most cities have only two climates. And the climate doesn't change by the week or the month. Many days here you can drive a mile and go through at least three different climates. That gives an excitement of living."

A lady who moved here several years ago from New York said positively, "San Francisco is a man's town." Asked if she liked this, she demanded, "what lady would want to live in a woman's town?"

To me the magic of San Francisco lies in the fact that it is able to look backward and forward at the same time.

It enjoys the present heartily. But at the same time it holds one hand fondly back to its fabulous past, it stretches another ahead to welcome the future. It does a wonderful job of balancing history and progress.

Swept by a postwar boom, San Francisco has spread its tentacles of growth outward, but it has changed at its heart more slowly. One returning here after many years will find that the old San Francisco has avoided being swallowed by the new.

While it has retained such moving signboards of yesterday as the cable car, it hasn't lagged behind in the jet age.

This week it dedicated its new $14,000,000 International Airport Terminal, serving more than 3,500,000 people in the Bay region.

The terminal building, one of the most modern in the nation, has eight levels, can accommodate 5 million passengers a year and is designed so that it can be expanded to handle 10,000,000. The airfield itself is as large as the La Guardia and Chicago Airports combined.

Among its features are a $250,000 International Restaurant and vast photo-electric window louvers that close automatically to subdue bright sunshine, open on dull days to admit more light.

But more impressive to me than its multi-million-dollar glamor is the fact that it has two complete nurseries. Mothers with babies have been the forgotten travelers of the air age, but San Francisco has remembered them.

Mrs. Ethel Buehler of 166 N. Lincoln Ave. has received this change of address for her son: Cpl. Roger Lee Buehler, Co. C 84th T.K. Biv. C.C.A., 3rd Armed Div., Fort Knox, Ky.

Mrs. Martha Brunner of Damascus has received a new address for her husband, Donald, who is now stationed in Chunchon, Korea, where he is a radio repairman.

Brunner is a graduate of Goshen Union High School and attended radio school at Ft. Sill, Okla.

His new address is:
Pvt. Donald Brunner, Hg. Batt. Hq. Btry., 196 FA Bn., APO 8, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco.

3 Million Servicemen Discharged Since 1950

WASHINGTON — Veterans Administration statistics indicated today more than three million servicemen have returned to civilian life since the outbreak of the Korean War.

As of July 31, a monthly VA summary showed, there were 2,962,000 discharged veterans of service since June 27, 1950.

Altogether, VA officials estimate there are now about 20,950,000 former service men.

DENIES ABDUCTION
CLEVELAND — Clarence Jones, 25, pleaded innocent yesterday to charges of abduction and molesting four-year-old Kenny Broyles. He was arraigned before Judge Arthur H. Day. The child, who was found lying injured under a railroad bridge, spent weeks in a hospital before recovering.

The Japanese estimate that their fishermen catch about one-fourth of the world's fish.

Saony's new touch for fall!

Saony New Fall Suit Triumph

At last! A real fall suit, superbly tailored, at just $25. The latest news-making achievement by famous suitmaker Saony. From fabric (a nubby textured rayon-acetate suiting) to fashion, they're suits with the well-designed air almost never found at this price. And they have the pretty femininity fashion dictates for new suits. Unlined for all-day, undercoat comfort. Come—see—try on—soon. Proportioned sizes. "It's a wonderful buy!"

$25<sup>00</sup>

Saony sweater touch worsted jersey

The debonair air of the turtle-neck sweater—snatched, first, from French males—late to your own sweaters. It's a tres chic touch for your fall dress. Saony does the yoke and collar in fine wool rib-knitting... the dress in soft, luscious pure wool worsted jersey with a gracefully fluted, spreading skirt. Smart heather colors. Proportioned sizes. "It's a wonderful buy!"

$22<sup>95</sup>

Saony suit dress has the sweater touch

It's a dress. It's a suit. It depends upon your mood. Saony has done it in the softest, springiest light-weight wool... with surprising little margins of fine sweater rib-knitting on collar and pockets. Cuffed, bracelet-length sleeves. The skirt begins slenderly; flares gracefully to the hem. Have it in a favorite fall neutral shade in a tone-on-tone effect suggesting tweed. Proportioned sizes. "It's a wonderful buy!"

$29<sup>95</sup>

Saony

wondrous new worster

The lady who loves a knit will love it more. The lady who hasn't 'til now, is due to fall... for this new, lighter weight, shapelier, and firmer kind. Loomed of expensive, long worsted yarns, it has the figure flattery of knit, the shape-holding nature of a worsted. The colors and tailoring are Saony-superb. Misses' and petites' sizes.

$49<sup>95</sup>

Congress Elections In Doubt; Voters Puzzled, Disturbed

(Last of a Series)

WASHINGTON (P)—Worried voters may well pick a divided Congress or give the winning party only slim control when they fill 435 House and 37 Senate seats in the Nov. 2 election.

As it shapes up now, the campaign for control of the two houses—whatever way it goes—looks like an undramatic battle where the tide of local skirmishes revolving around the personalities of individual candidates may go a long way toward influencing final results.

Although President Eisenhower will do a limited amount of campaigning, the impact of the presidential personality on individual races can't be calculated too accurately in advance.

Politicians in both parties say the people still "like Ike"—but whether they will take his advice when they trek to the polls remains to be seen.

Almost every candidate who comes back from the hustings reports that the voters are puzzled and disturbed. They shudder at the possibilities of an atomic attack, they wonder whether an economic recession is in the offing, worry about the attitude of America's allies and are apprehensive about possible Communist infiltration at home.

This kind of indecision makes for no clearcut campaign pattern, although Republicans essentially are running on a "peace and prosperity" platform and Democrats on the contention "big business" has taken the government away from the little fellow.

Consequently, many politicians believe that developments in the next two months—and to what the Republic-controlled Congress did in its last two sessions—may become decisive.

Unless these developments are startling, there may be only a slight change in either direction. The House lineup now stands at 218 Republicans, 213 Democrats, one Independent and three vacancies. The Senate count is 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and one Independent.

Although Eisenhower has insisted that what he calls his "dynamic, progressive" program is the main issue, politicians generally think that foreign and farm policies and the internal anti-Communist developments may be more compelling.

Generally speaking, the two parties have drawn a clear issue on farm price supports. Eisenhower won a congressional battle to switch from rigid, high level to flexible supports on basic field crops.

The effect of this, in dollars and cents, means that on the basis of present price relationships the government—supported price of wheat would be cut from $2.50 to $1.11 a bushel, corn from $1.82 to $1.60, cotton from 35.09 cents to 32.29 cents a pound and peanuts from 13.6 to 10.8 cents a pound.

Those crops are grown in a wide range of places where members of Congress are being elected. A drop in government supports is not likely to be welcomed if it results in a further decline in farm income.

But there are many political imponderables involved. The Eisenhower program will set aside a big chunk of the surpluses now piled up. Drought may cut production.

Some of the smartest politicians seem to believe that the argument over flexible and rigid price supports is largely academic. Their argument is that if farm prices show some advance and further prospects of going up, the Republicans will benefit, especially in the key midwestern areas. If prices go down, the Democrats can be expected to cash in politically.

The same sort of economic slide rule appears to apply in a general way to the urban vote. If business is good and employment is up in October, Eisenhower will have justified his criticism of Democratic "prophecies of gloom and doom." Some Democrats concede privately their chances in close states and districts will be lessened by the kind of prosperity they themselves want the country to enjoy.

Congress and the Eisenhower Administration took some strides toward keeping the economy at a high level for the rest of the year. Most significant, perhaps, was the reversal of what the Democrats called the Administration's "hard money" policy.

Congress cut taxes $1,363,000,000 and it will be up to the voters to decide whether Eisenhower was right in contending that encourage ment of investment, new plant construction and incentive to increase industrial payrolls was the right way to do it.

Democrats stand committed to the proposition that taxes on individuals should have been reduced more, contending that the administration followed the "trick down" theory of giving big business a break.

Congress expanded the social security program and increased its benefits. While both parties supported this election year move, Eisenhower seemed to have gone a long way toward offsetting Democratic contentions that the Republicans only wanted to go back to horse and buggy days.

While the Republicans promised to balance the budget, neither the Administration nor Congress accomplished that and a five billion dollar deficit may be rolled up in the current fiscal year. Republican candidates won't have much to talk about on that score.

Whether the Eisenhower Administration has cleaned up the "mess" in Washington remains for the voters to decide. It has reduced the federal payroll and has turned up some housing scandals.

But the general theme of the GOP "mess" charges of 1952 revolved around the alleged infiltration of Communists into the government. In the field of rooting out subversives, the results remain highly controversial.

Democrats challenge vigorously the Republican claim that more than 2,400 federal employees have been separated from the service as "security risks."

Democrats grabbed the ball in Congress' most noteworthy encounter with the Communist issue, tackling to a labor union infiltration bill a measure to ban the Communist Party.

As the legislation finally was signed by the President, the party would be denied legal rights but it would not be a crime to be a member of it, as the Democrats first proposed.

The Republicans' controversial Communist hunter, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), is busy defending himself in investigations directed at his activities by the Senate where the Republicans hold nominal control. Republicans are split over McCarthy, who can count some Democratic followers.

That McCarthy and his activities constitute an issue in some states seems apparent to most politicians. But few of them believe that the balance of power in the new Congress will be swung by either pro-McCarthy or anti-McCarthy candidates.

Recently some Democrats have indicated strong belief that foreign policy may play a large part in the voters' decisions. They say many voters are uneasy because of international setbacks dramatized by the apparent collapse of the European Defense Community

Man Not Lost, Wooden Leg Slowed Him Down

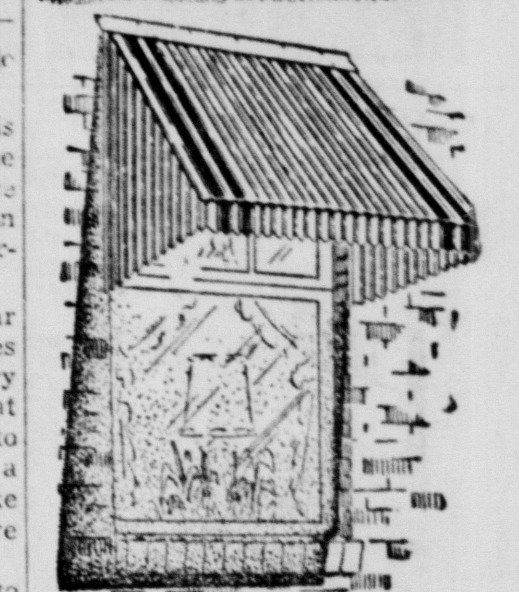

GRAVENHURST, Ont. (P)—Sixty-year-old Bert McConnell wasn't really lost the other night after a Blueberry picking trip. He was just delayed because his wooden leg kept coming off.

Searchers found McConnell yesterday at a farm house. He had become separated from a friend while picking berries near here.

"Why call the cops?" asked McConnell. "I know these woods like the back of my hand. It was my darn leg that held me up."

McConnell's left leg is severed at the knee.

"It kept getting caught, coming off, and I broke the harness on it. Otherwise, I'm all right... and I got the blueberries."
